

Profile

Michael Ragan

Experience

Workflow Professionals, LLC — July 2007 to present

President; Western U.S. and Canada Distributor of Paperless Environments imaging and workflow automation software. AIIM certified ECMp. Integration experience with Viewpoint, Timberline Office, ComputerEase, Custom Systems. Enterprise systems consulting (selection, process engineering, system design, implementation, training, and documentation) and ERP experience with scale ticketing, estimating, project management, contact/CRM management, and remote data capture. Development Associate and Business Development Partner with Viewpoint.

Burger Consulting Group — December 2008 to present

Senior IT Consultant with extensive experience working with Heavy/Highway, Civil, and General Building Contractor software implementations.

Viewpoint Construction Software — March 1985 to August 2007

Corporate Sales and Marketing Manager for a company specializing in accounting, project management, and operations software for mid-range to large volume construction companies. Responsible for client account management including the firm's largest corporate account with the leading Heavy/Highway Construction and Materials Producer in the U.S.

Benjamin/Harper Construction Co. — June 1983 to March 1985

General Partner, Project Manager/Superintendent for residential and light commercial construction projects. Managed field and office operations, business development, estimating, and project administration while earning an MBA.

Southern California Edison Co. — May 1981 to June 1983

Project Manager/Supervisor responsible for developing and implementing residential energy conservation programs. Controlled or reduced program costs through productivity improvements and effective use of computer resources, including the development of a computerized rebate payment system and marketing database.

U.S. Congressional Budget Office — January 1981 to May 1981

Budget and Policy Analysis Consultant providing research and writing assistance in the development of economic policy analyses during the Carter-Reagan transition. Prepared published analyses on Federal Involvement in Solar Energy Development and on the Energy Conservation Bank.

Lindbrook Construction Co. — February 1978 to January 1981

Estimator/Project Manager responsible for bid preparation and cost estimates, coordinating and scheduling materials, labor, subcontracts, and change orders on a wide variety of public works construction projects in Washington and Alaska.

Education

University of Washington
Seattle, Washington
Master of Business Administration, concentrations in Finance and Information
Management

University of Washington
Seattle, Washington
Bachelor of Arts, Business, Operations
Management